

Emily Harrison

Managing Director
Nexus Healthcare Education

GAME member spotlight for May 2024

Overview

Nexus Healthcare Education (Nexus HE) is an independent global provider of medical education solutions tailored for healthcare professionals (HCPs). At Nexus HE, we are at the forefront of medical excellence, renowned for our dedication to delivering tailored, accessible and outcome-driven solutions that enhance the healthcare industry and promote the well-being of patients. Nexus HE is committed to providing high-quality, inclusive and impactful initiatives that meet precise needs and tackle obstacles within the healthcare sector to advance medical knowledge and clinical practice. On a mission to make high-quality education universally accessible and enriching for HCPs worldwide, Nexus HE hopes to transform global healthcare, resulting in healthier populations, more efficient healthcare systems.

In addition, please find below responses to your questions for the membership spotlight.

- 1. What do you want to accomplish with your GAME volunteerism? At Nexus Healthcare Education, we're dedicated to advancing medical education and improving patient outcomes. Through my volunteerism with GAME, we aim to foster international collaboration and share innovative educational strategies. We believe that by working together, we can accelerate the integration of cutting-edge research and technology into healthcare training, which in turn can elevate global health standards.
- 2. Please describe your current role at your company. As the founder and managing director of Nexus Healthcare Education, I oversee our strategic direction and daily operations. My role involves curating high-quality, evidence-based CME/CPD programs, engaging with global experts, and ensuring that our offerings meet the diverse needs of healthcare professionals worldwide. I am also deeply involved in partnerships and outreach to ensure that our educational impact is broad and inclusive.
- 3. Why did you join GAME? Joining GAME was a strategic decision to align with a global leader in medical education that shares our commitment to lifelong learning and healthcare improvement. The opportunity to collaborate with like-minded organizations and experts provides us with invaluable insights and resources that enhance our offerings and ultimately benefit the communities we serve.
- 4. What would you tell other professionals who are just joining the CPD profession and starting their careers? Embarking on a career in CME/CPD is both exciting and demanding. I would advise new professionals to stay curious and continuously seek out new learning opportunities. Networking with peers and joining groups like GAME can provide crucial support and guidance. Remember, your work in CME/CPD plays a pivotal role in enhancing healthcare practices and patient care.
- 5. Please share some personal fun facts I've explored over 50 countries and make it a goal to discover a new one each year. My travels ignite my curiosity and bring valuable new insights that enhance both my personal growth and professional endeavors.